

Book Discussion with Matilde Córdoba Azcárate

For a description of Stuck with Tourism, click here. For a copy of the Introduction, please email naturespacepolitics@ucsd.edu

May 12, 2021

10am - 12 pm (PDT)

<https://ucsd.zoom.us/j/97330598169>

Please join us for a lively conversation in celebration of Dr. Matilde Córdoba Azcárate's new book.

Introductions: Dr. Elana Zilberg (UC San Diego)

Discussants:

Dr. Bianet Castellanos (University of Minnesota)

Sam Gaffney, Ph.D. Candidate (UC San Diego)

Dr. Chandra Mukerji (UC San Diego)

Dr. Mimi Sheller (Drexel University)

Dr. Manuel Xool Koh (Universidad Nacional Autónoma de México)

Q&A Moderator: Paula Santa Rosa, Ph.D. Candidate (UC San Diego)

"Stuck with Tourism exposes the steep price tourism extracts from the men and women caught in it, as well as the struggles and dreams that sustain them" - Dr. Vernadette Vicuña Gonzalez

This event is organized by the Nature, Space and Politics group with the support of UCSD's International Institute, Communication Department, Global Indigenous Peoples Group, Center for Iberian and Latin American Studies, and the Latin American Studies Program.