Warrior Women Film Screening 3-4pm

Warrior Women is the story of mothers and daughters fighting for Native rights in the American Indian Movement of the 1970s. The film unveils not only a female perspective of history, but also examines the impact political struggles have on the children who bear witness.

If you cannot make the meeting but would still like to see Warrior Women, fill out this google form to have the link emailed to you!

Interview with Madonna Thunder Hawk 4-5pm

Madonna Thunder Hawk is an Oohenumpa Lakota, a veteran of every modern occupation from Alcatraz to Wounded Knee in 1973 to the recent NODAPL protest at Standing Rock. An eloquent voice for Native resistance and sovereignty, Thunder Hawk has spoken throughout the United States, Central America, Europe, and the Middle East and served as a delegate to the United Nations in Geneva.
